

For Immediate Release 8/22/2013

Contact: Janice Wilson Stridick

609-923-2733

Stridick@gmail.com

Alice Steer Wilson Invitational Returns to the Chalfonte Hotel

A new catalog of the artist's work inspires a celebration of her Cape May art legacy

Merchantville, NJ, August 22, 2013 – The family, friends, and colleagues of the late Alice Steer Wilson open the sixth invitational exhibit in her memory, at the Chalfonte Hotel, Cape May, on Sunday, September 1st. This show features the book, Alice Steer Wilson: Light, Particularly and debuts three limited edition fine-art prints from within its pages. “Favored Flower,” “Summer’s End,” and “Privileged Light” were among the many works first exhibited at the Chalfonte Hotel. Author Janice Wilson Stridick and contributors Anne R. Fabbri and Sue Carpenter Priester will attend and sign the books, as will author Karen Fox with her book, The Chalfonte. Prints and original work by Wilson, Virginia Tabor, Kathleen Eastwood, Carol King Hood and Marc Shenfield will be exhibited and offered for sale.

Featured artists will welcome the public at the opening reception on Sunday, September 1st from 2-3:30PM at the Chalfonte Hotel, 301 Howard Street. The event is free, and wine and hors d’oeuvres will be served. Paintings will remain on display in the Solarium and Magnolia Room through October 9th.

This exhibition renews a celebration of Alice Steer Wilson’s art that began in 1992 with the first Alice Steer Wilson show at the Chalfonte. The late artist’s commitment to present fresh, original works to friends, students, and collectors from around the world inspired her painting year-round. For information on the reception or exhibit, call the Chalfonte Hotel, 609-884-8409. For more information on the catalog, visit www.southboundpress.com.

###

Contact: Janice Wilson Stridick (Exhibit Coordinator) 609-923-2733

Terry Carr (Chalfonte Hotel) 609-884-8409